

TRANSITION TO COLLEGE FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
Pre-Test / Post-Test

	TRUE	FALSE
1. The Disability Support Services Office will contact you when you enroll.
2. The IEP will determine your disability related services in college.
3. If you tell your instructor that you have a disability you will automatically get disability services in college.
4. Disabilities Services coordinators will follow your progress, and communicate your grades, current class status, attendance, etc.
5. Inappropriate behavior due to a disability is tolerated at colleges.
6. The laws regarding students with disabilities are the same in high school and college.
7. Your parents may obtain information on your progress in college by calling the Disabilities Services Office.
8. The Disability Support Services Office will tell your instructors about your disability needs.
9. The college will test you to see if you have a disability.
10. Students with disabilities must register with the Disabilities Services Office.		